

Abstract

A substantially pure excretory-secretory product is isolatable from Necator americanus and is capable of inducing apoptosis in reactive T cells.